Neither may it cause the Executive Board to lose its role as the collective management body. The accountable managers must determine the operational policy of the Company. Action taken by individual members of the Executive Board within their field of expertise shall be deemed to have been taken collectively and shall be binding on the entire Executive Board.

- 14.7.2 Any natural person who contravenes the aforementioned provisions on taking up a new directorship must relinquish one of the directorships within three (3) months of the appointment. On expiry of this period they shall be deemed to have resigned from their new post as member of the Executive Board of the Company and must return all remuneration received, without thereby undermining the validity of any deliberations in which they have taken part.

14.8. Liability of the members of the Executive Board
